The American Board of Magnetic Resonance Safety (ABMRS) announces electronic exam administration now available.

The ABMRS credentialing exams for MR Medical Director (MRMD), MR Safety Officer (MRSO) and MR Safety Expert (MRSE) are now available through Prometric testing centers in the US and Canada. Prometric has over 350 test centers in North America.

International exams will be available at a future date yet to be determined.

According to ABMRS Chair Wm. Faulkner: “Providing ABMRS exam administrations through Prometric testing centers enables exam candidates to schedule their exam at a testing center nearest them on any available date and time.”

Exam information and registration can be found on the ABMRS website at www.abmrs.org
